Coronation Ball To Start Fiesta

A gala Coronation Ball will mark the official opening of the 1967 Fisherman's Fiesta scheduled Oct. 13, 14, and 15 in San Pedro. The ball will be held Friday night, Oct. 13, in San Pedro's Yugoslav-American Hall.

The ball represents a major change in the format of the nationally-famous, Southern California seafaring spectacular, now almost two decades old.

Opening ceremonies are usually held Friday morning at Fisherman's Wharf, scene of the fiesta. A colorful opening at night in Yugoslav Hall is expected to generate more interest and excitement, greater attendance and wider community support in the project. However, the fiesta itself will be open for business as usual from 11 a.m. Friday the 13th.

At the Coronation Ball, the Skipperette, to be selected a few weeks earlier as fiesta queen, will be crowned and presented to her subjects. It is also expected that Governor Ronald Reagan, Mayor Sam Yorty, members of the Harbor Commission and important city, county, and state officials will be present as honored guests.

It was announced by a Fiesta Committee spokesman that the Skipperette Contest to all the young ladies, 16

Entry blanks may be obtained by 21, residing in area cities. This too is a change, for in previous years contestants, to qualify, either had to be employed in the commercial fishing industry or have a relative in the industry. Date of the Skipperette contest will be announced shortly.

. . . Talbert

Councilman David K. Lyman nominated Talbert, a nomination that was immediately challenged from the floor by Mary Lou Cushman, 4806 Carmelyn, who told councilmen that O. P. "Bud" Johnson was the runnerup candidate at the polls in 1966, and that "if it isn't Bud Johnson, it shouldn't be any candidate on the list."

COUNCILMAN J. A. Beasley told her that "nothing in the last election has any bearing on our decision."

Several councilmen expressed a reluctance to vote against either candidate, and Lyman suggested that councilmen vote only for his choice in one polling of the members.

"All the nominees were persons of substance and quality. I feel any of them would have made a good councilman," Lyman said. "Unfortunately, we can choose only one."

IN THE official voting for the appointment, Ken Miller and Mayor Albert Isen stood alone for the appointment of Halstead while Lyman, Beasley, Ross Sciarrotta and George Vico cast votes for Talbert.

Talbert, who was seated in the council chambers, was called up, introduced, and took his oath of office at 8:28 p.m.

Last night's appointment was the first since Ed Karlow was appointed on Jan. 23, 1951, to succeed George Powell who had left to become the head of the city's planning department.
